CHRISTMAS CHEER. ✓

By Paul Terry and John Foster ✓

Old Al, all dressed up like Santa, sails along in his plane,
" The Spirit of St. Nicholas ", making some folks happy.

But poor old Thomas Cat is very sad. His four little kittens are all set for Santa but his pockets are empty and the outlook forlorn.
Tom sends them to bed, and goes out into the night.

From window to window, poor old Tom sees joyous dancing and feasting. Heartbroken, he sits down under a tree and cries. Old Al sailing along, sees Tom and descends with a load of toys and goodies for him. Tom runs home with the bundle and cheers up his four little kittens.
All of which goes to show that

" IT IS ALWAYS DARKEST BEFORE DAWN. "
